We messed up and want to make it up to you!

Dear Adventurer,

We want to apologize to you. We were so excited to launch The Thelos Chronicles preorders, we forgot to double-check our email to you. Since the company won't let us time-travel to fix this mistake, we're making Dave read all our emails out loud to our trusty companion bot from now on.

Infinity Gateway will be available to play on July 15th, not May 15th, as originally stated, and here is the newly fixed link for pre-orders!

To make up for all the confusion, we'd like to give you a 15% discount on your Infinity Gateway preorder for the next 24 hours.

Use discount code INFINITY15 to claim your offer.

Thank you for putting up with our goof-ups.

Sincerely,

The Pixelated Games Team
